GERMAN ARMY CRUELTY. ACTION BY THE GOVERNMENT.

After a temporary postponement the gass against the Socialist orator, Resu Luxembourg, on a charge of libelling the Prussian Army, was resumed, writes the Berlin correspondent of the Standard. It had been stated that the list of wit messes for the detence, offering to give evidence of cases of affectly they had experienced in the enarse of their militury service, was growing daily, and that the number was already more than a thousand.

Both sides were to a certain extent thus prepared for the sensational surpriso provided at the beginning of the proceedings in the shape of a letter from the Minister of War, which was read out by the Public Presecutor, to the effect, that he had ordered all the ensessed ernelly mentioned by the witnesses for the defense, which hittierto had not been before courts martial, to be the subject of such "proceedings. He therefore requested an adjournment. Counsel for "the defence protested against the idea that witnessies could be heard before suc-Court only after giving evidence before a court-martial. Continuing, coursel estirmed that some of his witnesses complained that they had recently had visits trem detectives in their houses. One also had stated that he had been addressed in a throatening manner by a State insurance official, who said. "You have asked to be admitted to a brapital, but now; lyong mean, to give existence on behalf of Rom Luxembourg!" Finally the defense asked for an undertaking that their witnesses should not be interfered with by the authorities it the case were pessponed. The Public Proscoutor promised that, so far or he was concerned, nothing of the kind would be done.

MINISTER AND POSTPONEMENT. The Court, after deliberating a whole hour, finally decided to grant the requested postponement. The "defending counsel thereupon consented to hand over the evidence of his 1913 witnesses for t preliminary, perusal by the prosecutions That the Court did not expect at all To request for the postpenement is shown to the ensoption of an extra judge for perling the trial, a procedure taken in · Germany in cases which promise to last arl undue length of time.

The Socialists admit their disappointmonth. They bound that for once there. would be a kind of trial of cases of mili-) tary emelty before a civil court which [would indirectly bring the pressure of millitary Court. Nevertheless, the prevailing view that the Minister made a grave mistake grows in force.

Wanted GREEN ISLAND CEMENT Exclusive Agent

$2,000 to $5,000 Yearly Profit.

We want a man who doesn't think $2,000 to $5,000 per year too much to carn. We want a man who can develop in this country a business already established. If you'ere eaching an opportunity of that kind.

You Are The Man We Want

The Chicago Ferrotype Co., of Chicago, U. S. A., the originators of one minute photography, desire to extend their business in China. They want the a research at exclusive agent who will devote his whole time to the selling of their products and b the development of business throughout China.

This agent will be given sole and exclusive selling rights, full protection in his territory, and ex-operation from the manufacturers for the success of the agency. We want an aggressive man who knows the value of advertising, correspondence and all modern methodens securing orders by mail and demonstrations. Our agent will be required to handle a complete stock of our one minute picture machines and supplies so that he can till orders promptly. We will further require our agent to invest about $2,000 for a supply of our goods, and these will be sold at a substantial discount allowing a big margin of profit to the agent.

The "Mandel" One Minute Cameras

Are world-renowned and are now being advertised in leading export journals, magazines and newspapers throughout the world. The "Mandel" Cameras and positive post cards represent a progressive step in photography. "By this new process of making photographs, plates, films, printing, dark room and all other usual camera accessories are entirely eliminated. It requires no exceptional ability nor experience for anyonesto make successful pictures with the "Mandel" Cameras. We manufacture all the applies log elevating our cameras, thus the supply business alone will create enormous sales and profits for our agents determined largely upon his own energy and husiness ability. If you believe that you can meet all the requirements as set forth in the oregoing announcement, write without delay, giving your age, business, experiences and all particulars that will assist us in deciding it you are the man who will profit mos had our agunt."

A Natural Remedy

Time was when disease was thought to be due to the direct influence of evil spirits, and expressin and magic were invoked to cast it out

Science has tagist us wisdom. The "emil spirits exist still. We call them "Disease Germs," and they also must be cast out. Once lodged in the stomacheor intestines, lever with its hallucinations, or bilipusness with its aches and pains, is the result.

is" the approved remedy for driving out disease germs. Its action is quick and thorough. Itclears the intestines, rouses the torpid liver to new life, stimulates the mucous membrane to a healthy action, and cleanses and invigorates the whole digestive tract.

Another beautiful map which I have a thint of the dionese of Arles, with the most splendid engravings of Avignon, the Pont du Garde; according to my Evan's Geographical Grammar (1809) this is " a piece of architecture, so unaffectedly elegunt, that the most phlegmatic spectator cannot, behold it without admiration." ' Another '' diocesan '' may of about 1700 shows Brahant and Flanders, the sea 989 being full of neroids and tritons and fleets (apparently Dutch) sailing up and bombarding the coast of Kent. This man is, it should be added, drawn by a Dutch man. Kent is in the Dioceses of Canterbury and Rochester and is 50 miles long and nearly as much broad. contains 30,240 Houses, 235,440 Inhabitants, 408 Parisher, 32 Market Towns, and sends 18 Members to Parliament." It abounds in Corn, Cattle, and Fruits, more especially Cherries. and it is usually said that the Downs have health without wealth, the Mar-liy Parts wealth without health, and the Middle health and wealth. It has 2 Cities, Canterbury and Rochester. Canterbury is an Archbishop's See and Rochester is a Bishop's see, but Maidstone is the County Town.

I must not close without referring to two interesting old "coloured maps of London which I have had mounted. One of these contains " a plan of London as in Queen Elizabeth's days," and ha south prospect of London as it appeared as it lay in ruins after that dreadmyth of a world supported by an elephant [1610." OHINA AN THE WAR.

THE GENERAL FINANCIAL SITUATION.

Especially during the past three deender, the commerce of the world has grown to be international, to an extent unknown in history. As the countries now engaged in war have nearly three-I fourths of the total trade of the world and are the principal manufacturing countries, the cossition of industrial netivity has had a tur-reaching effect in fall parts of the world. From the Argentine to China and the United States there is an unexampled paralysis of trade. As the mainstay of modern government I al finance is trude, even in countries like China, disorganization in this direction results in a concommutant disorganization in the finance of the Government: Now that there has been enough time for the offeets of the crisis to be felt in China. light worth while making a brief survey of the financial situation in this country.

Although there are still some glear-ances of imported goods; the teads a a whole is being reduced thay after day. Even in the piece goods anchiens qualitities have been considerably reduced hand prices have come Hown budly. There was no life in the auctions this week, Every day there is less and less money to buy good; with, and as credit is necessarily curtailed bosiness in imports naturally degreeses. Although China is not involved in the war, the situation of Tsingtoo has unfortunately contributed to make people nervous. Again, although there is no reason for curtailment eredit among Chinese, the fact that th foreign banks are cautions is sufficient to make Chinese almost underly erreful. As the export trade is stopped to all intenta and purposes except for some small shipments to America-the position is that the Chinese are paying out to buy import goods, while they are not receiving anything from the sale of their produce. This state of affairs cannot contimes for long; there will soon arrive a stage at which, unless there is a movement in exports, there will be no possibility of the continuance of the import

There is however, some consciation in the fact that eargoes have practically ceased to agrive in Shanghai. Bad as the situation of the import merchant may be at the moment, he has to be thankful for the fact that his load of obligations is not increasing.

EXPORT TRADE. As shipping and finance are thoroughly disorganized this trade has been the worst sufferer on account of the war-The banks are unwilling to take the risk of paying the export merchant for eargothat might not reach the destination in time, and bills that might be repudinted or not met when sent to the home mar-Rets for collection. On occasions like the present, the soundest firm or bank at home may not be worth anything at the moment. Hence the estimate of the reliability of a bank or firm in peaceful times is of no value at present. The local export merchant as a rule has not funds enough to buy "eurgo, without the aid of banks; even if he were able to do so, it would be very unwise of himto take a risk which the banks with all their financial stability are unwilling to take. Another factor which has brought about suchea sudden collapse in the export trade—as compared with the trade n imports-is the fact that this business has been principally in the hands of Continental firms, who have been depending. more on credit than British firms which do'the bulk of the import trade.

With no official quotations for silver end the exchange market elesed, it is not surprising that business has become practically impossible. The importer or exporter has no basis to go upon; each ank huotes its own rates; no forward business, is possible and the rates are from day to day. Some banks find themselves unable to take up even contracts which have been made long before the war. These are extraordinary times; and one certainly cannot blame the banks. The large accumulation of silver with the banks, which was once very much deplored, is now serving as a boon; for the banks are able to meet all their liabilities without any difficulty whatever, and no panie among Chinese is now

The principal reason for the disforganization in the exchange market is the // Inct that the markets ful fire in 1866," with pictures of various in London still remain closed. The

THE SHARE MARKET. With the banks doing as little business as possible, the facilities usually granted to trade and individuals are entirely nonexistent to-day. The Stock Exchange remained closed since the 3rd instant, and until the banks are able to give the usual facilities-at least to a certain extent-there is no the in opening the exchange. If, therefore, any hitch should occur between the Chinese troops that are supon the non tior, guarding the interests of China, the matter must at once be forwarded to Peking, when the President and h itumediate advisors will see it through In this way it was thought the chance of an outbreak between the soldiers the two countries would be reduced to a minimum, and the probability that any difficulty would be settled to the satisfaction of both parties much more easily than if irritated soldiers tried to arrange matters on the spot. There can be no doubt about the wisdom of these arrange ments, and little doubt that the President is determined to keep the peace and have no trouble with Japan.

"General Joffre's plans are being steadily carried out. The Allied Forces are acting on the offensive and have been successful in checking and fereing back in a north-easterly direction the German forces opposed to them

OFFICIAL RESUME OF THE MONTH'S OPERATIONS.

Great Britain's Gratifying Position.

The following official review of the present general situation was areceived by H.E. the Governor, and courteously forwarded to us for publication:---

At the end of the first month of the war the command of the sea is] left prehallenged in the hands of Great Britain and her Allies. The "in. " German and Austrian fleets remain in their harbours under shelter through Peking," dated 8th September, 6 p.m., states; of their mines and batteries. Four German' cruisers, one auxiliary cruiser, two destroyers and a submarine, and an Austrian cruiser have been sunk. A German Dreidnought and a cruiser have fled without fighting and have taken refuge in the Dardanelles. The loss to the British Navy has been one light cruiser only.

As a consequence of this naval supramacy, over 300,000 troops have been able to cross the sea in different parts of the world without the the front Meauz, Vitry le Francois, Argonne Forest. loss of a man. The British Expeditionary Forces have been carried to France. Colonial Expeditions have been sent to attack the Colonies of Germany in Africa and the Pacific, and the French troops, under cover ef the combined Anglo-French Mediterranean Fleet, have been escorted. from Algeria to France. The resources of the Empire, under cover of the British Fleet, will be fully developed, and the armies in Europe will , be reinforced by those of Australia, Canada, India, and Africa without coasing. German-mercantile marine has disappeared from the ocean, while the sens are open freely to the commerce of Great Britain. In every part of the outlying seas, in China, the Pacific, the Atlantic, German ships have avoided action with the British croisers, preferring to make ineffectual attacks upon unarmed merchant vessels to encountering men-of-war. Although Gorman cruisers are still at large, their depredations have been small and they are unable to remain in any part where serious attack could be made upon British commerce.

Strong as the British Navy is to-day, there will be an accession of strength within the next twelve months of not less than ten first-class. _capital ships, fifteen cruisers and twenty destroyers, thus still further exchanging shots with the enemy for half increasing the margin of naval superiority in ships of all classes over an hour, Germany, who during the same period will not add more than a third of this number to her fleet.

The prices of commodities have only risen very little; there is only a small amount of unemployment; a fund amounting to over two million passenger vessels and freighters, bringin pounds has been voluntarily contributed by the people to meet any dis- food supplies. Associated Press) - tress that may later arise.

The British and French Armies in France have fought a series of botly-contested engagements in which they have inflicted on the enemy Har larger losses than they have suffered. In the meantime, in response to the call of the Government, 300,000 fresh recruits have joined the British Army voluntarily. Many new divisions are already in process of organisation and the number of recruits now enlisting each day are equal to one division and a half. The whole Empire is absolutely united and firmly resolved to carry the war to a successful issue. "v.

Great Russian armies have invaded East Prussia and are on the Colonial Secretary, has opened a sore of point of entering Central Germany. The Austrians have been decisively beaten, first by the Servians at Shabatz and on the river Dring, and afterwards by the Russians in Galicia. They have abandoned their compaign against Servia, and have lost the fortified city of Lemberg.

Outside Europe the Japanese fleet and a force of troops are blocksding Tsington in China. The German colony of Togoland in West Africa has been surrendered to an Anglo-French force. By the capture of the German armed vessel Wissmann on Lake Nyassa, the control of the whole of Lake Nyassa has been secured to Great Britain. Trade and industry in all British Colonies remains undisturbed. The colony of Samoa in the Pacific has been taken by a force from New Zealand.

THE GERMANS COMPELLED TO "FALL BACK.

London, Sept. 7, 8.5 p.m. An official announcement at Bordeaux (the present sen; of the 'rench Government) states that the Anglo-French army, after two days' fighting, compelled the Germans to fall back.

A Bordeaux communique published this afternoon says that a general action is proceeding at Nanteuil, and from there all along the Grand Morin river to Vitry-le-Francois, extending to Verdun. Thanks to the vigorous action of the French troops, powerfully supported to the British army, the Germans, who advanced on Sunday as far as Coulonimiers and the Laferte-guacher district have been compelled to fall back.

GERMAN ATROCITIES IN LORRAINE.

"The report of the Prefect of Meuse in regard to the villages attacked on the rontier of Lorraine states: "At Bedenweiler two persons were killed, including the wife of the Mayor; 75 homes were drenched with oil and borned; the church was cannonaded, and 15 hostages taken. At Bramenil five citizens who were more than 74 years old were shot. Parux is nothing but a mass of ruins. Letters which have been found on German soldiers, either killed or taken prisoner, show clearly that borning the villages and killing the inhabitants has been directed in the General Orders of the Gorman troops. These atrocities have been committed in the localities defended by the French army and not by the inhabitants.

WAR NEWS.

FIGHTING.

Paria, Aug. 14. Desputches from Hriesels state that the artillery duck in the neighbourhood of Tongres has been resumed, and that Numerous quiet Suites with luxuriously | the firing last night was heavy and continuous, indicating an action of some mportance.

The main German army is being emplayed in the advance on France through Belgium, twenty-five army corps of the total strength of twenty-nine in the attempted invasion of France having been located by French and Belgium spies and observers. Of these twenty-five, the majority are now on Belgian and Luxemburg soil, ready for an advance in force. The border is practically open, only a few troops, comparatively speaking, being left there to guard the main points of a possible Russian actvance. The evident Hot and Cold Water System throughout. strategy is to depend upon Austria to hold the Russians in check, while Germany concentrates her attack upon

On Wednesday there was a pitched battle near Elas-elt, in which five thousand Germans were out to pieces. Tho-Germans attacked and were caught in ambush, losing three-fifths of their numbers. The slaughter was quick and deci-

Cut off from their base of supplies and their commissarian already inadequate, the advance German army of invasion south and west of Liege is reported to be in a desperate plight. The bodies of officers picked up on the battlefields have been found with raw potatoes in their pockets, evidently the only food available, while the soldiers have been leaving the lines to dig for food in the turnip patches and potato fields. Horses which have starved to death have been found. There is absolutely no forage, the inhabitants having destroyed everything they could not carry away.

GERMAN ARTILLERY.

The German projectiles, says this report, were noticeably poor. "A hundred 211-centimetre morter shells, weighing. 220 pounds, fell in Pont-a-Moussen, the centre of the hardest fighting. This can nonading, the war office says, killed only four French soldiers and wounded three. In the fighting in the attack upon the French position and the subsequent movements, the Germans lost a battery and three machine guns, as well as soveral wagons of ammunition. ...

'In pursuing the invaders back to the line, the French came upon the Twentyfirst Eaden Dragoons, who had dismounted and were fighting as a rear guard. The regiment was cut to pieces by the French envairy .- Associated Press.

The bearer of the flag was carried shoulder high in the circution of Whitehall while the rid flags were torn down and trampled. A free-for-all fist fight followed between the Socialists and their opponents, finally resulting in the calling of mounted police, whose presence soon quieted matiers. No arrests were made.

Ben Tillett, one of the speakers, was frequently interrupted and was invited to fight when the meeting was finally broken

In all the churches in Loudon yesterday there were prayers for peace. There were big attendances at all services despite the heavy rain in the morning hours. Learning that a Cabinet meeting had been called a record time, at 6.30 o'clock, fully ten thousand haunted Whitehall to watch the Ministers as they turned into-Downing Street. Most of the officials came in authomobiles, but John Burns walked. receiving a big ovation as he wedged his way through the crowd. Downing Street was heavily guarded by police, who permitted no one to enter until after the moeting was adjourned, after 8 o'clock. Mr. Asquith was cheered as his automobile turned into Whitehall. At midnight groups were going through the streets singing. There was a scene of great enthusiasm outside Buckingham Palace last nightgrowd of five or six thousand gathered before the palace and sang the national anthem and called for King George, who, with Queen Mary, appeared on a belcony and bowed in response to cheers given for them and for France.

STATE ENTRY INTO BRUSSELS

London, Aug. 22. A special correspondent of the "Dai News," who has just return d from Ostend states that calm still reigns there. Ex traordinary news of a German advance was trickling through the official telephones, but the public know nothing. refuges from Brussels described how the populace straggled out of the capital. When the Chemin du Nord station was closed and no more tomins were allowed to leave, there was a general desertion of the city by motor cab, motor-car and on foot to get a few miles beyond the city in the hopes that the German advance would not no rush for the ship leaving for England it simply filled up and that was all.

Loudon, Aug. 22. A Brussels despatch states that the German army ontered Brussels in state on he 21st. When the commander of the exchanging shots with the enemy for half Belgian forces at Brussels saw that further resistance was unclear, he didered the city guard to lay down their arms, and proceed. ed to the camp of the Gorman commander, and offered to surrender with a view to prevent the outbreak of disturbances in the city. After two hours, the German forces commenced to enter the city in triumph with the r gimental bands marchiog in front of the regiments. The German cavalry, tufan ty, acultery, and empineers marched into the city in order, and a numher of motor cars on which quick-hring gum were fitted followed -- (" Or ikis
